A WOMAN WHO WAS SUGAR ESTIMATE KIND TO EVERYONE BY A. M. NOWELL

The Friend, last issue, contains the following tribute to the late Mrs. Heapy:

Susan Dorcas Heapy is a name that will be treasured through life by many quiet folk all over this Territory. Mrs. Heapy was splendidly endowed with a physical frame of strength and abounding vitality. She had a largeness of power and an overflowing vigor which opened the way for the free entrance of her influence into every one she met. She was also a woman of unusual culture. Growing up in a home devoted to the cause of education, under a father whose life had been given to training the young, she had the advantage not only of sound instruction but also of wide travel while still young. She disciplined herself to observe, acquired several foreign languages and throughout life maintained a close acquaintance with the best things the world over. It was a delight to converse with her, her knowledge was so accurate and so inclusive. Her scholarship was not technical but human, for it was the human touch that always appealed most deeply to her. Best of all, she had a cultured spirit. One felt in her instinctively the presence and dominance of a soul that had known the discipline of long and varied spiritual experience. All these elements combined to form a personality of rare beauty. And all that she was and had was lavishly given to others. She was irresistibly drawn to everyone because every fellow human being was a child of the Great Father and therefore her brother, her sister. Her dominating characteristic was love for others, prompting her to serve them. She was beautifully unselfish. It was natural to her to give herself generously to children, to unmanageable girls, to any one of any race or any social status, and all in the simplest, most friendly way possible. One could not but feel in her the touch of the Master. In the best sense she was a woman of the world, a type of the golden age dawning in this world. Because she loved much, she was much beloved and many a life is richer for her strengthening friendship. Such a character lives on in the conviction of all who know her. If God lives, then this spirit which held so much of the Great Father, can never die. Was not this what Jesus meant when he said, "Because I live ye shall live also."?

Division Tax Assessor J. K. Farley gives notice in this issue that delinquent tax-payers of Kauai must settle at once at the Koloa tax office or they will be sued and be compelled to pay all costs as well as the principal.

ENJOYABLE CONCERTS

While on Kauai last week Prof. Ideler and Miss Sutherland, of Oahu College, gave two delightful concerts, one at the Knudsen home in Kekaha and the other in Lihue Social hall. The former which was under the auspices of the Waimea Literary Club, was largely attended and much enjoyed. The latter was given for the benefit of a branch of Red Cross work. Ladies of Lihue were quite diligent in disposing of tickets, so that a neat sum was realized. It is so seldom that Kauai has the opportunity of hearing real music that expressions of delight with both of these entertainments have been generally heard.

Chas. Blake Retires

Charles Blake, for many years deputy tax assessor of the district of Koloa, last week tendered his resignation to Division Assessor J. K. Farley and retired on Thursday. Mr. Farley appointed William K. Waialeale to be his successor, and the new man assumed the duties of the office yesterday.

ANNUAL MEETING OF RURAL Y. M. C. A.

At a recent meeting of the general committees of the Rural Y. M. C. A. at the home of Mr. Loomis, Eleele, it was decided to approve of the development of a Territorial organization of the interests and activities of the Y. M. C. A. with a central committee in Honolulu, and Messrs. Brandt and Lydgate were elected members-representatives of Kauai to that committee.

Attention was called to the open door and the urgent need for Y. M. C. A. welfare work among that large and steadily increasing element of our population, the Filipinos; they are a most amenable people, and are eagerly reaching out for just that sort of thing. There should be a special Secretary who could give his whole time to this work. The lion in the way, however, is the very considerable expense of such a new departure. It was decided to commend this work to the Kauai Planters Association, as most valuable and profitable welfare work, in the interest of labor efficiency, and labor contentment, with the hope that they might assist in financing it.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Loomis treated the Committee to delicious refreshments, in which the ladies participated.

FARNUM AND FOX ON MOVIE BILL

Fox Film Corporation sends one of its leading stars and one of its strongest offerings to Kauai theaters today. William Farnum is the star and "A man of sorrow" is the photo-drama. It is a typical Fox film and a typical Farnum vehicle. It should register a decided hit with patrons of the theaters whose appetite for melodrama is large and usually well satisfied.

The story is one long series of tense situations in which, for a while it looks as though wrong would conquer right. The reverse, however, is a fact but not until the bitterest drops of sorrow have been sipped by the man in the case—also the woman. The finale is about as strong as that of any Fox photoplay thus far sent to here and William Fox takes a keen delight in strong finishes. Farnum has the support of a big Fox cast.

Bonus Money Here

The bonus money to be paid to plantation laborers on Kauai arrived at the banks and some of the plantation offices last week and at a number of places will be distributed today. About $750,000 will be paid out. The money is in paper currency, so paper money will be quite common on this island in the next few days.

A rumor is around that many Filipinos will use their bonus money to try to reach and establish themselves on the Coast.

For Saturday Nights

For the benefit of out-of-town friends the Lihue Store has decided to keep open up to 9 o'clock every Saturday night until Christmas.

See the big Christmas display and other attractions of the store, then have dinner at the new Tip Top Cafe and, finally, take in the entertainment in the theater, accompanied by the Wurliizer orchestra.

ANNUAL MEETING SUGAR PLANTERS

The annual meeting of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters Association began in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at Honolulu this morning and it is expected that the session will last three days. The reports of the committees have already been distributed to members. In these committees are a number of Kauai sugar men, as follows:

Cultivation, fertilization and irrigation on irrigated plantations: C. H. Wilcox, of Lihue; F. A. Alexander, of Eleele.

Cutting, loading and general plantation transportation: B. D. Baldwin, of Makaweli; J. R. Myers, of Kilauea; G. R. Ewart, Jr., of Waimea; F. A. Alexander, of Eleele; and E. H. W. Broadbent, of Lihue.

Agricultural machinery and implements: G. P. Wilcox, Kealia; B. D. Baldwin, Makaweli; J. R. Myers, Kilauea, and F. Weber, Lihue.

Forestry: H. P. Faye, Kekaha. Warehouses and storage of sugar: C. H. Wilcox, Lihue.

There was quite an exodus of Kauai plantation men to the city Saturday evening to attend the meeting.

AMONG THE CHURCHES

Thanksgiving was observed as usual at the Lihue Union church with a special service. The decorations, which constituted an important part of the service, were unique and appropriate, consisting mainly of fruits and agricultural products, very tastefully and effectively arranged in large masses. Mrs. Carter, who was decorating committee for the month, was assisted by a number of volunteers, who made light work of the task. Seldom has the church looked better.

By way of special music Mrs. W. H. Grote sang "Unto the Hills," a beautiful thing, and rendered with very fine effect. Mr. Lydgate's theme was "Making the Best of Things" with some interesting and searching applications to local conditions.

The congregation was the largest Thanksgiving one in history of the church.

SUNDAY MORNING

The gem of the service on Sunday morning, at the Lihue Union church was the duet, "I will magnify The Lord," by Mrs. H. L. Sheldon and Miss M. Wood. It was a rare bit of music, as difficult as beautiful, such as only the accomplished vocalist could render; it was done to a fine finish that delighted all who heard it.

The church looked very pretty in white and yellow chrysanthemums; the work of Mrs. A. S. Wilcox.

AT ELEELE

At Eleele there was an unusually good audience, with a commendably large proportion of young men. A really fine rendering of the hymns gives welcome evidence of the new stimulus and enthusiasm that is abroad there in church matters, and does credit to the newly organized choir.

Mr. Jesus Fined

A Lihue Portuguese named Manuel Jesus, while learning to drive a Buick "Six", ran into the car of Wm. Kuhlman, also of Lihue, in front of Francis Gay's place, Waimea, Sunday afternoon. Kuhlman's car was turned completely over and badly damaged. In the Waimea court yesterday Jesus was fined $50 for heedless driving.
